

WHAT WILL I LEARN?

Topics covered include Camp administration, building relationships with social services, insurance, accounting procedures, ordering merchandise, how to select your Camp facility, using RFK curriculum, Director's Pre-Camp Checklist, interviewing and selecting counselors and staff, conducting counselor/staff training sessions, understanding personality types and working with them, principles of budget-raising, resources available from RFK and most importantly, understanding how to make moments matter for your Campers.

WHAT WILL MY WEEK LOOK LIKE?

Saturday training, lodging and meals will be held at a local area hotel. Sunday we head to the church that will be running the camp during our training week. After attending service we will train and then head to camp. All meals and transportation beginning Saturday at the arrival airport are provided by Royal Family KIDS.

WHERE DO I FLY INTO?

Omaha, NE (Director's Training) - OMA
Costa Mesa, CA (Director's Training/Passing the Scepter) - SNA
Cedar Hills, TX (Director's Training) - DFW
Norman, OK (Passing the Scepter) - OKC
Agawam, MA (Director's Training) - BDL

WHAT DO I NEED TO BRING?

Personal Hygiene Essentials.
Closed toe shoes/Camp appropriate attire please.
Jacket or Sweatshirt for cool nights and classrooms.
Cell phone for breaks (WIFI available).
Check weather prior to departure.

WHAT ARE THE SLEEPING ACCOMMODATIONS?* Bed linens and towels provided

Omaha, NE - Dorm style with shared bathroom
Costa Mesa, CA - Condo style with shared bathroom
Cedar Hills, TX - Dorm style with private bathroom
Norman, OK - Motel style (2 adults per room)
Agawam, MA - Dorm style with shared bathroom

HERE'S WHAT FORMER TRAINEES ARE SAYING...

"For one week, it gives foster kids a sense of hope and understanding of who God is!" -2017 Trainee, Observing Camp

"Best training I have been to, secular or non-secular. RFK is a Godly, professional organization." -2017 Trainee

"We were treated like "Royalty" during the entire training experience such that we could totally focus on our learning, while bonding closely with our very skilled trainers. The overall training experience was very effective and equipped a large team of people to accomplish a very, very large task. We felt the support of RFK Inc. during training and still benefit from their support on an ongoing basis." - Darell Hailey, Timberline Church