

RFK Interview Questionnaire for Camp Candidates

- 1. So, [name] why do you desire to participate in a short-term mission to children of abuse and neglect?
- 2. What's your favorite Bible book or character in the Bible? Why?
- 3. Who has influenced your life the most? Or, do you have personal heroes?
- 4. What talents do you possess that you think might be beneficial at camp?
- 5. What about other people bugs you? What will be your biggest challenge at camp?
- 6. Have you or anyone close to you ever been abused or molested?
 - a. How have you worked through your hurt?
 - b. How long ago was the abuse?
 - c. What kind of counseling, if any, have you had or are presently receiving?
 - d. What kind of support system do you currently have?
 - e. Why are you volunteering for this camp?
 - f. When you have recurring thoughts about this, what do you do to get better?
 - g. How do you know you are sufficiently healed to attend camp?
- 7. What memories would you like campers to take home?

8. Suppose an angry camper tells you they hate you and want to go home. What do you do?

9. If during camp a volunteer or camper had to be reassigned and you were asked to change responsibilities, how would you react?

10. Can you put your life on hold for five days, and place the interests of campers ahead of everything else?

11. We complete a criminal background check on everyone. Will arrests or accusations or any wrongdoing appear on your background report?

You answered the following questions on your Application, we'd like to ask you the same questions in person.

- a) Have you ever been arrested for a criminal offense?
- b) Have you ever been convicted of or plead guilty to a crime?
- c) Have you ever been arrested for sexual misconduct?
- d) Have you ever been convicted of or plead guilty to sexual misconduct?

Here are some additional questions that were not on the application-

- e) Have you ever been accused of a crime you did not commit?
- f) Have you ever abused a child before?
- g) Have you ever been falsely accused of abusing a child?

12. What else would you like us to know about you? Do you have any questions for us?