Outcomes and Benefits

Children:

Provides life changing moments where kids can just be kids
 Shows a picture of family life for those who haven't experienced it
 Replaces missing elements in their lives (i.e. attention, affirmation, happiness, positive memories, "basics" such as food, clothing, and emotional connectedness)

Community:

Brings the church and state together for a noble cause
 Community sees the church in a new light, as a giver and a servant
 Gives caregivers a respite break

Church:

Gets people involved - "out of the pew and involved with a purpose"
 Builds faith in the members involved
 Expands the church into the community

* Total number of volunteer hours divided by 2000 which represents an approximate number of full-time non-paid yearly workers
 Social Capital is the number of volunteer hours multiplied by the IRS volunteer services in 2018 at the rate of $24.69.
